

Spirit Spouses (The Real Reason for the Wait)

And it came to pass, when men began to multiply on the face of the earth, and daughters were born unto them, that the sons of God saw the daughters of men that they were fair; and they took them wives of all which they chose. And the LORD said, My spirit shall not always strive with man, for that he also is flesh: yet his days shall be an hundred and twenty years. There were giants in the earth in those days; and also after that, when the sons of God came in unto the daughters of men, and they bare children to them, the same became mighty men which were of old, men of renown (Genesis 6:1-4).

Sons of God=angels, born of the spirit and not flesh.

Mankind= sons of man.

Angels are the sons of God; Jesus is the Son of God. We are the sons of man, but we've become sons of God through adoption. Ephesians 1:3-5 confirms this; it states, "Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who hath blessed us with all spiritual blessings in heavenly places in Christ: According as he hath chosen us in him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and without blame before him in love: Having predestinated us unto the adoption of children by Jesus Christ to himself, according to the good pleasure of his will."

Adam was a son of God, but Eve was brought out of Adam, meaning that the two were pretty much on an equidistant plane until sin entered the picture. After sin entered the picture, God had to establish rank because man now needed to fight. Every good army has rank. In Genesis 3:16, God gave woman her punishment; it reads, "Unto the woman he said, I will greatly multiply thy sorrow and thy conception; in sorrow thou shalt bring forth children; and thy desire shall be to thy husband, and he shall rule over thee."

The word "desire" in this scripture comes from the Greek word "epithumia" and it means: passionate, longing, lust. HELP Word Studies state the following, "properly, passion built on strong feelings (urges). These can be positive or negative, depending on whether the desire is inspired by faith (God's inbirthed persuasion)."

The word "woman" means man with a womb. Because women have wombs; we are the carriers of nations, men and women set to come into this earth to destroy the kingdom of Satan, Satan has waged war with mankind, and his favorite warfare tactic is to either use the woman to ensnare men or to attack the womb of a woman.

Revelation 12:1-6: And there appeared a great wonder in heaven; a woman clothed with the sun, and the moon under her feet, and upon her head a crown of twelve stars: And she being with child cried, travailing in birth, and pained to be delivered.

And there appeared another wonder in heaven; and behold a great red dragon, having seven heads and ten horns, and seven crowns upon his heads. And his tail drew the third part of the stars of heaven, and did cast them to the earth: and the dragon stood before the woman which was ready to be delivered, for to devour her child as soon as it was born.

And she brought forth a man child, who was to rule all nations with a rod of iron: and her child was caught up unto God, and to his throne. And the woman fled into the wilderness, where she hath a place prepared of God, that they should feed her there a thousand two hundred and threescore days.

Revelation 12:13-17: And when the dragon saw that he was cast unto the earth, he persecuted the woman which brought forth the man child. And to the woman were given two wings of a great eagle, that she might fly into the wilderness, into her place, where she is nourished for a time, and times, and half a time, from the face of the serpent. And the serpent cast out of his mouth water as a flood after the woman, that he might cause her to be carried away of the flood. And the earth helped the woman, and the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed up the flood which the dragon cast out of his mouth. And the dragon was wroth with the woman, and went to make war with the remnant of her seed, which keep the commandments of God, and have the testimony of Jesus Christ.

The enemy went to make war with the woman. Now, let's read Genesis 6:1-4 again. "And it came to pass, when men began to multiply on the face of the earth, and daughters were born unto them, that the sons of God saw the daughters of men that they were fair; and they took them wives of all which they chose. And the LORD said, My spirit shall not always strive with man, for that he also is flesh: yet his days shall be an hundred and twenty years. There were giants in the earth in those days; and also after that, when the sons of God came in unto the daughters of men, and they bare children to them, the same became mighty men which were of old, men of renown." Now, when you read this scripture, all of the culturally embedded romantic undertones dissipate and you can see it for what it is. The sons of God (dark angels or better yet, demons) saw the daughters of men and how beautiful they were. From there, these fallen angels aka demons took some of these women as wives for themselves. But how did this happen? Did demons come into the bedrooms of women and rape them in their sleep? Did the women wake up pregnant and confused? How did devils manage to impregnate human women?

1. The angels disguised themselves as people. How so? Hebrews 13:2 reads, "Be not forgetful to entertain strangers: for thereby some have entertained angels unawares."
2. They entered and possessed men; these men found themselves attracted to certain women and they either followed religious protocol to get them or they pretty much stole them through rape, molestation or coercion.

Make no mistake about it; this was and is warfare. And this warfare wasn't just about angels not being able to restrain themselves; it had everything to do with lineage. I always say that we think in moments, but Satan thinks in generations. It is for this reason that he is after what comes out of a woman's womb. But the question still stands... why?

1. Exodus 1:9-16: And he said unto his people, Behold, the people of the children of Israel are more and mightier than we: Come on, let us deal wisely with them; lest they multiply, and it come to pass, that, when there falleth out any war, they join also unto our enemies, and fight against us, and so get them up out of the land. Therefore they did set over them taskmasters to afflict them with their burdens. And they built for Pharaoh treasure cities, Pithom and Raamses. But the more they afflicted them, the more they multiplied and grew. And they were grieved because of the children of Israel. And the Egyptians made the children of Israel to serve with rigour: And they made their lives bitter with hard bondage, in mortar, and in brick, and in all manner of service in the field: all their service, wherein they made them serve, was with rigour. And the king of Egypt spake to the Hebrew midwives, of which the name of the one was Shiphrah, and the name of the other Puah: And he said, When ye do the office of a midwife to the Hebrew women, and see them upon the stools; if it be a son, then ye shall kill him: but if it be a daughter, then she shall live.
2. Matthew 2:1-8: Now when Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judaea in the days of Herod the king, behold, there came wise men from the east to Jerusalem, Saying, Where is he that is born King of the Jews? for we have seen his star in the east, and are come to worship him. When Herod the king had heard these things, he was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him. And when he had gathered all the chief priests and scribes of the people together, he demanded of them where Christ should be born. And they said unto him, In Bethlehem of Judaea: for thus it is written by the prophet, And thou Bethlehem, in the land of Juda, art not the least among the princes of Juda: for out of thee shall come a Governor, that shall rule my people Israel. Then Herod, when he had privily called the wise men, inquired of them diligently what time the star appeared. And he sent them to Bethlehem, and said, Go and search diligently for the young child; and when ye have found him, bring me word again, that I may come and worship him also.

Matthew 2:13-18: And when they were departed, behold, the angel of the Lord appeareth to Joseph in a dream, saying, Arise, and take the young child and his mother, and flee into Egypt, and be thou there until I bring thee word: for Herod will seek the young child to destroy him. When he arose, he took the young child and his mother by night, and departed into Egypt: And was there until the death of Herod: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken of the Lord by the prophet, saying, Out of Egypt have I called my son. Then Herod, when he saw that he was mocked of the wise men, was exceeding wroth, and sent forth, and slew all the children that were in Bethlehem, and in all the coasts thereof, from two years old and under, according to the time which he had diligently inquired of the wise men. Then was fulfilled that which was spoken by Jeremy the prophet, saying, In Rama was there a voice heard, lamentation, and weeping, and great mourning, Rachel weeping for her children, and would not be comforted, because they are not.

Understand this... in that time, they could not perform abortions, so they would kill babies fresh out of the womb. Pharaoh wanted to kill male babies and so did Herod because males become fathers. They weren't interested in killing the women; notice that the dragon in the book of Revelation wasn't interested in consuming the woman; the Bible says it stood before her to consume her seed. This is because Satan is interested in the womb of a woman; he knows that God has given mankind authority over him and his kingdom, so he wants to usurp that authority. He knows that he needs an earth-suit to operate so he wants women to give birth, just not to godly or God-like men. He wants women to give birth to men and women born under demonic principles, for example, children born because of lust, perversion, rejection, fear of rejection, abandonment, loneliness, impatience, etc. Without a father, these children would take on the shape and nature of the principle that they were born under. David said, "I was shapen in iniquity."

Many children today are the products of demonic principals, for example, their mothers thought that having them would force the children's fathers to stick around and learn to love them. The children were nothing but an offering to their gods. But to Satan's dismay, these children can and often do get saved, meaning that God can translate them from the kingdom of darkness into the kingdom of His dear Son, Jesus Christ. Nevertheless, many of these children won't get saved which means that they'll join the army of darkness and wage war against God's Kingdom, either passively or assertively.

Nowadays, Satan still attacks what comes out of a woman's womb through:

1. Fornication
2. Abortion
3. Rejection
4. Seduction (Music, Television, Evil Associations)
5. Demonic Doctrines

Please note that the devil is still interested in marrying and mating with you! This is why there is a demonic entity often referred to as a spirit spouse. Spirit spouses are committed to destruction; they marry both men and women and then commence to destroy their destinies using one of their many ships, which include: romantic relationships, friendships and hardships.

A few concepts to consider:

1. The average human is married to a principal; if the principal is ungodly, the person is married or yoked to a principality by default. This is why divorce is commonplace in the Western world. Most divorces are the results of two principals that are at war with one another.
2. Women typically marry their imagination of a man, but divorce his reality.
3. God told us to not unequally yoke ourselves with unbelievers. In other words, don't marry people who are married to demonic principals, otherwise, they'll coerce you into marrying that same principality OR that principal will be the very reason that your marriage is the equivalent of spiritual bigamy, meaning, the person was already yoked when you came into his or her life. That person wasn't free to marry. This is why the Apostle Paul said, "If the unbeliever wants to depart, let them depart." In short, when an unbeliever leaves a believer, it's only because the unbeliever is married to a principal, and because the believer won't submit to or marry that same principal, the unbeliever cannot and will not stay. Why is this? James 4:7 clearly states, "Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you." Not only will the devil leave, but everyone who has a devil that he or she is in love with will also leave. This is called deliverance, even when it doesn't feel like it.

When we hear the term "spirit husband" or "spirit wife," we often think of a devil who's function is to primarily act as a demonic spouse; we think of how it keeps these people from marrying, destroys their marriages and relationships, and affects their ability to have children UNLESS those children are born under a specific principal. Nevertheless, this is only partly true. Spirit spouses can be specific types of demons that have married a person or into a bloodline, for example, Jezebel is married to Ahab. A man or woman with the Jezebel spirit will, by default, be attracted to other men and women who have the Ahab spirit, and vice versa. These spirits or principals are attracted to one another. Strong, bound men are often attracted to Delilahs; they love sampling the forbidden fruits.... they hate boundaries because they are bound.

Remember, Satan's role in every romantic relationship is to make war with or control what comes out of a woman's womb. His plan is to birth out men and women who have no father (cultivation, inheritance) so that he can cultivate them. He does this through the use of demonic marriages and/or unequally yoked marriages. He encourages women to marry their Pharaohs and Herods; he encourages men to marry Delilahs and Jezebels, and he does this through the promotion, normalization and glorification of demonic principals. He introduces men and women to an image, and then tells them what they need to do to attain and sustain that image.

(She is loud and stubborn; her feet abide not in her house: Now is she without, now in the streets, and lieth in wait at every corner.) So she caught him, and kissed him, and with an impudent face said unto him, I have peace offerings with me; this day have I payed my vows. Therefore came I forth to meet thee, diligently to seek thy face, and I have found thee. I have decked my bed with coverings of tapestry, with carved works, with fine linen of Egypt. I have perfumed my bed with myrrh, aloes, and cinnamon. Come, let us take our fill of love until the morning: let us solace ourselves with loves. For the goodman is not at home, he is gone a long journey: He hath taken a bag of money with him, and will come home at the day appointed. With her much fair speech she caused him to yield, with the flattering of her lips she forced him. He goeth after her straightway, as an ox goeth to the slaughter, or as a fool to the correction of the stocks; Till a dart strike through his liver; as a bird hasteth to the snare, and knoweth not that it is for his life. Hearken unto me now therefore, O ye children, and attend to the words of my mouth. Let not thine heart decline to her ways, go not astray in her paths. For she hath cast down many wounded: yea, many strong men have been slain by her. Her house is the way to hell, going down to the chambers of death.
